

Have you been part of a DNR camps hand crew?
Do you love giving back to the community through firefighting and forestry work?

WE ARE LOOKING FOR YOU!

NEW EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY!

The Department of Natural Resources (DNR) in collaboration with the Department of Corrections (DOC) is providing a great employment opportunity to individuals transitioning from incarceration to the community.

The success of this elite Type 2 Hand Crew is dependent on the following commitments from DNR, DOC, and its crew members.

If you are interested in learning more about this employment opportunity, please request a copy of the recruitment and application from any of the following:

DNR Camp Manager or Crew Boss

DNR

COMMITMENT

- Continue the training you've received in camp.
- Provide you with personal protective equipment and tools for firefighting and daily forestry.
- Hire you as a full time employee of the Washington State DNR.
- Overtime is paid at the rate of time and one-half in excess of 40 hours worked.
- For all hours worked under the Incident Command System, two dollars ($2.00) is added to your regular hourly rate of pay.
- Eligibility for health and dental coverage.

DOC

COMMITMENT

- Transitional housing assistance if you are eligible for the ERD housing voucher.
- Work with you on schedules for individuals at a Reentry Center and on community supervision.
- Provide reentry navigation services for benefits, essential needs acquisition, and identification assistance.

Joshua White (front) previously incarcerated at Cedar Creek, currently working for DNR as a Wildland Firefighter pictured with Ed Amacher (back) his former boss and now his colleague.

CREW MEMBERS

COMMITMENT

- Perform pre-suppression and suppression related activities.
- Willing and capable of performing strenuous outdoor work safely and productively.
- Competent in understanding and following the chain of command.
- Demonstrate responsible citizenship in the communities you serve.

